Santa Cops Deliver Toys to Good Little Girls and Boys

It's beginning to look a lot like...Santa Cops time! For the last 15 years, Santa Cops has delivered toys to economically disadvantaged children in our community. Last year they made Christmas dreams come true for 1450 children and 471 families.

You may help by bringing new, unwrapped toys to the Police Department at 307 West Dallas Road, or to drop boxes located in the Senior Activities Center, Community Activities Center, Central Fire Station, Waffle House, and City Hall from November 19th until mid-December. Cash donations are also welcome. Police officers will deliver toys to homes in time for Christmas.

Santa Cops is funded entirely by local donations. It is organized and implemented by Grapevine Police Officers and Volunteers in Police Service (VIPs), their families, and community volunteers.

Individuals and groups interested in helping wrap toys are most welcome. Community gift wrapping dates are December 2, 7, 9, 14, and December 15, if necessary. Location will be announced later.

For further information, please contact Senior Officers Johnny Jones at 817-410-3209, Jason Keller

at 817-421-2192 or Scott

Rhodes at 972-724-2126, or you may email the officers at crimeprevention@grapevinetexas.gov.

New Centralized Recycling Station Offers At-Your-Convenience Recycling

Is your recycle bin overflowing? Don't think you can wait until the weekly pickup? We have good news! You may now dispose of recyclables at the City's new centralized recycling station at your convenience. The new recycle containers, exclusively for the use of Grapevine residents, are located in the parking lot adjacent to the Grapevine Animal Shelter at 500 Shady Brook Drive, across the street from the Municipal Service Center. No sorting required.

Parks and Rec

Sunset Concert Series at the Botanical Gardens at Heritage Park

The first four Saturday evenings in October from 7-9 pm, enjoy a free and relaxing evening of various music styles surrounded by the beautiful Botanical Gardens. Bring a blanket or chair to relax under the gorgeous fall sky. Our participating sponsor, PF Chang's China Bistro, will offer a special concert series menu, or you may bring your own snacks (no alcohol, glass or pets allowed).

Docents will be available to answer gardening questions, and children's gardening activities will be available. For more information, please visit our calendar of events at www.gvpard.com.

Halloween On Main Street

Bring all your little ghosts and goblins for a free family fun-filled night of frolic at Grapevine's 24th Annual Halloween on Main Street event, Friday, October 29th from 6-9 pm. Our frightfully Texas-sized Halloween festival includes six city blocks of trick-or-treating, carnival games, illusions, bounce houses, laser tag, giant slides, crafts, music and more. Wear your "scary best" costume for the costume contest, which is open to all ages, including a family "theme" division. Enjoy more than a ton (over 2000 pounds) of candy, plus free kettle corn and prizes.

KEEP GRAPEVINE BEAUTIFUL (KGVB)

2nd Annual Trash & Treasures Community Clean-Up Saturday, October 16th

After a smash hit last fall, we will once again hunt for treasures along the shorelines and creek beds while collecting litter and removing large debris. While beautifying Grapevine, volunteers will search for Mardi Gras beads hidden in the debris. Once found, they may be redeemed for prizes at the picnic. Travel on foot or in a small water craft for this really fun and valuable event. A limited number of kayaks and jon boats will be available, or you may bring your own. Registration/treasure hunting is from 8-11 am, followed by a picnic of hamburgers, hotdogs, chips and drinks provided by Grapevine Ambucs from 11 am - 1 pm. Locations are Dove Park at 1509 Hood Lane, and Memorial Baptist Church at 3000 William D. Tate Avenue. Register online at kgvb.org. For more information, please contact Mary Jo at mjtellin@grapevinetexas.gov or call 817-410-3490.

Crime Prevention Unit Received Awards

The Grapevine Police Department Crime Prevention Unit was awarded Most Outstanding Crime Prevention Agency for Small Agency - population served up to 99,999 in Texas by the Texas Crime Prevention Association (TCPA). This award is presented to the agency that has made the most substantial contribution(s) to the field of crime prevention and to the TCPA. Last December, the Crime Prevention Unit was also awarded Most Outstanding Crime Prevention Agency (Regional Award) in the Texas Chisholm Trail Crime Prevention Association, which serves the northwest portion of North Texas.

The state award was presented at The Texas Crime Prevention Association's annual Summer Training Conference. Grapevine Police Senior Officer Scott Rhodes serves as the Association's president. 🍷

Sign Up for Real-Time Police Alerts

The Grapevine Police Department recently created an official Facebook page and Twitter account to connect people in the community with neighborhood-level public safety and community events. The information is disseminated in real time through text messages, emails and web access similarly to Nixle. a free community information service that was unveiled earlier this year. Facebook, Twitter and Nixle accounts are free.

In August, the Grapevine Police used Facebook, Twitter and Nixle to broadcast a free adoption program at the Grapevine Animal Shelter. The program waived the standard $40 adoption fee. Based upon the overwhelming number of people receiving the messages, 41 homeless cats and dogs found new homes the first day. Animals from surrounding area shelters were also placed in homes. The Police Department then sent messages that there were no animals left to adopt.

As a result of the success of this program, Facebook, Twitter and Nixle messages will continue to serve as an invaluable tool for disseminating real-time data to our residents.

Become a fan on Facebook by searching Grapevine Police Department.

You may sign up for Nixle at <http://local.nixle.com/grapevine-police-dept>.

If you have questions, please contact the following Crime Prevention Officers: Sgt. Dale Roath at 817-410-3206, Officers Jason Keller at 817-421-2192, Johnny Jones at 817-410-3209, or Scott Rhodes at 972-724-2126. You may reach them by e-mail at crimeprevention@grapvinetexas.gov. 🍷

Education Collection

Grapevine Public Library is proud to announce the creation of a new educational resource collection for teachers, homeschoolers, and parents who are seeking new ways to teach children. The collection is just in its beginning stages, but already includes teaching manuals published by Teacher Created Resources covering a range of subjects and grade levels. Many include reproducible worksheets. The collection also contains books on classroom management with ideas to help teachers excel. This new collection will be in the Children’s Department of the Library and will continue to grow into a strong collection supporting the educational needs of our community.

E-mail Alerts

The Library offers email alerts for notification on holds, material due, and overdue material. If your email address is not on record with the Library, stop in at the circulation desk, call 817-410-3400, or email circulation@grapevinetexas.gov to request to receive notifications via email. Consolidate family’s Library alerts by using the same e-mail address for each member with a Grapevine Public Library card. 🍇

Be Prepared to Vote in November Elections

To vote in an election, you must be registered to vote in the city in which you currently reside, and you must be registered 30 days prior to the election in which you wish to vote.

To update your voter registration card, you may call The Elections Administration at 817-831-8683 and follow voice mail prompts to register to vote, verify registration, or change your address. Voter registration applications are available at City Hall or the Grapevine Public Library. You may also print an application or request one be mailed to you at www.sos.state.tx.us/elections/voter.

If you have recently moved to Grapevine, take a few minutes to mail your old card back to your former city so that you may be deleted from their records. Then be sure to register in Grapevine! 🍇

New Ordinance for Garage Sales

The Grapevine City Council recently approved an ordinance limiting garage sales, yard sales and similar sales from homes to four per year. Residents may have one sale per quarter, and length of sale may not exceed three days.

Unlike many other cities, Grapevine does not require permits or fees for garage sales.

The official ordinance may be found in the "Accessory Use" regulations in each individual residential zoning district. To find zoning ordinances, go to the City's website, www.grapevinetexas.gov, click on "government", then scroll down to "zoning ordinances".

If you have any questions, please contact the Building Department at 817-410-3165. 🍇
